

WHITE MANSIONS

Lee's Company

A folk opera from the Old South by Paul Kennerley

The Ballad of

WHITE MANSIONS

by

Lee's Company

A powerful and fascinating story of four people from the Southern United States caught up in the American Civil War.

A tale of love, hate and vengeance 'brilliantly' captured during this 'remarkable' performance

A superb and compelling blend of 'Acoustic Folk' and 'Country roots'

The storyline gives witness to the rise and fall of the 'Old South'.

"An emotional tour de force - excellent!"
